A required team member’s name may be duplicated when multiple roles are performed by the same person. Documentation of team member involvement must be maintained by the LEA. Watch the Planning and Preparation webinar for additional information and guidance.

2. DATA COLLECTION ANALYSIS

2.6 Data Analysis Questions

Analyze the LEA’s data and answer the guiding questions to determine existing trends and patterns that support the identification of demographic and financial needs. Student subgroups with a count of less than 15 are denoted by “TFS” (too few students).

| | |
|--|---|
| What perception data did you use? [examples: student perceptions about school climate issues (health survey, violence, prejudice, bullying, etc.); student/parent perceptions about the effectiveness of programs or interventions; student understanding of relationship of school to career or has an academic plan] | We utilized parent, teacher, and staff perceptions. Teacher surveys regarding professional development surveys were utilized to help support the answers in 2.3 and 2.5. |
|--|---|

| | |
|--|--|
| What does the perception data tell you? (perception data can describe people’s knowledge, attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, competencies; perception data can also answer the question “What do people think they know, believe, or can do?”) | The perception data highlights the need for professional development and parent engagement opportunities. |
|--|--|

|--|--|
| What process data did you use? (examples: student participation in school activities, sports, clubs, arts; student participation in special programs such as peer mediation, counseling, skills conferences; parent/student participation in events such as college information meetings and parent workshops) | There was a lack of process data from the previous year to utilize. |
|--|--|

|--|--|
| What does the process data tell you? (process data describes the way programs are conducted; provides evidence of participant involvement in programs; answers the question “What did you do for whom?”) | Due to the lack of evidence the process data provides evidence that an increase of parental involvement and student participation in school based programs needs to be increased. |
|--|--|

| | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| What achievement data did you use? | iReady results, progress monitoring test data, teacher observations, teacher surveys |
|------------------------------------|--|

| | |
|---|--|
| What does your achievement data tell you? | The achievement data explains students have increased their student achievement; however, teachers do not have a full understanding of the standards, assessments, and data analysis to be truly effective in their instruction. |
|---|--|

| | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| What demographic data did you use? | School based demographic data, assessment data |
|------------------------------------|--|

| | |
|--|---|
| What does the demographic data tell you? | Our subgroups of economically disadvantaged and black students require intentional support. |
|--|---|

3. NEEDS IDENTIFICATION AND ROOT CAUSE ANALYSIS

3.1 Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

Read the trends and patterns summaries from each section of the data analysis process. Use the information in these summaries to complete 3.2 and 3.3. Using the summaries in 3.1 and other local data, describe the strengths and challenges or answer the guiding questions for each program. Include strengths and challenges related to: a) general program implementation, and b) students and adults involved in or affected by the program. Focus on strengths and challenges that will assist in the identification of needs during 3.2. Watch the Identifying Need webinar for additional information and guidance.

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

| | |
|--|---|
| Coherent Instructional: Summarize the coherent instructional system trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | The coherent instructional system trends and patterns highlighted an operational strength in curriculum documents and resources as well as a supportive and well-managed environment. However, there were noted weaknesses in students actively monitoring their own progress, teachers providing feedback on their performance, and in the facilitation of and analysis of assessment data. The trends support the need for professional development support in creation of assessments, analysis of data, and student understanding of standards. |
| Effective Leadership: Summarize the effective leadership trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | The leadership trends and patterns showed an operational strength in monitoring the performance of teachers and staff. Emerging areas included building relationships, initiating change, and establishing a common vision and mission. Noted areas of weakness involved resources to support continuous improvement, providing an up-to-date school improvement plan focused on student performance, and an alignment of monitored goals and strategies. Based on the trends noted, the school would benefit from professional development aligned with increased leadership capacity, school culture and facilitating an aligned vision. |
| Professional Capacity: Summarize the professional capacity trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | This was a noted identified area of weakness. The emerging strength was some structures are in place for staff to engage in shared decision making. There was a significant areas noted as not evident. Due to 6 out of 7 of the standards being noted as not evident it is critical the school's focus is on building, establishing and maintaining professional capacity of the leadership team, the instructional and the support staff. |

Strengths and Challenges Based on Trends and Patterns

| | |
|---|--|
| Family and Community Engagement: Summarize the family and community engagement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | Family and community engagement proved to be another area of weakness for the school. Areas noted as emerging included creating a welcoming environment, communicating academic expectations and sometimes connecting families to agencies. Noted areas of concern included the lack of communication between the school and stakeholders, relationships between the school and families, and developing the capacity of families to use strategies at home. The school would benefit from a Family Engagement position on staff to help facilitate, nurture and engage in family engagement. |
| Supportive Learning Environment: Summarize the supportive learning environment trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | The supportive learning environment domain was noted as emerging in most if not all standards. The highlighted area of weakness is the development of a common mission and vision and no evidence to support the college and career readiness of students. The school would benefit from professional development centered around the implementation and development of a supportive learning environment across the campus. |
| Demographic and Financial: Summarize the demographic and financial trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | The current financial trends observed do not lend themselves to proper support of the students, instructional staff and support staff. It is evident fiscal resources need to be allocated to those areas in most need to support the development and success of all stakeholders. |
| Student Achievement: Summarize the student achievement trends and patterns observed by the team while completing this section of the report. What are the important trends and patterns that will support the identification of student, teacher, and leader needs? | Due to the lack of a coherent instructional system, effective leadership, and the limited professional capacity of staff the student achievement trends are an area of weakness. With the implementation of intentional professional development we would see an increase in student achievement. |
